

JOURNAL OF SIKH AND PUNJAB STUDIES

Volume 26 Number 1 & 2 Spring/Fall 2019

Special Issue on Ghadar: Guest
Editor: Sukhdev Singh Sohal

Articles

Contents

Dedication

Sukhdev S Sohal	Editor's Introduction to Special Issue	1
Amandeep Bal	Pioneer Punjabis in North America: Racism, Empire and Birth of Ghadar	7
Gurdev S Sidhu	The Holt Farm: Nursery of the Ghadar Movement	27
Darshan S Tatla	A Fateful Encounter? Sikh Interaction with the Hindu Elite on the Pacific Coast of North America	35
Seema Sohi	'The Fate of 330 million Indians': Racial Exclusion, State Repression and the Ghadar Party across the British and American Empires	71
Chhandra Chatterjee	Sikhs on the Cross-Roads: Flows between Punjab, Canada and Calcutta	91
Karanbir Singh	Sketching the Formative Years of Sohan Singh Bhakna's Life in Punjab	111
Sukhdev S Sohal	The Salience and Silence of Har Dayal in the Ghadar Movement: A Critical Appraisal	127
Raj Kumar	War as Opportunity: The Ghadar and the Great War	155
Sharanjeet Nijjar	Revisiting the Indo-German 'Conspiracy'	179

Rajit K Mazumder	A Limited Revolution: An Inquiry into the Failure of Ghadar	201
Jasbir Singh & Baljit Singh	The Ghadar Reading of Giani Hira Singh Dard	217
Amrit Deol	'Workers and Peasants Unite': The Formation of Kirti and the Kirti-Kisan Party and the Lasting Legacy of the Ghadar Movement, 1918-1928	249
Gurcharan Singh	An Appraisal of the Komagata Maru Apology	267
Autar S Dhesi	Open Letter to President Donald J. Trump	297
Book Reviews		301